May 19th 1864

Major Genl Johnston

Sir

The 23rd Bat^y of Vol^s under my command were mustered into the U S Service for the war in the Provisional Army under the act for local defence and special service, and number two hundred on our muster roll, comprising the hands employed in the Armory of Cook & Brothers for constructions for arms, but ordered to report to Genl Howell Cobb for duty which was done, we are well armed with Enfield rifles of Col Bos Manufacture and 40 rounds of ammunition all turned over to us by the Govt, I feel it my duty to notify you of our organization should you desire our services we can move immediately Very Respectfully Yours
Wm Genl F. H. C. Cook, Major
